A photograph of a cluttered bathroom sink area. The white sink is surrounded by various cleaning products, including a spray bottle of 'Eucalyptus' disinfectant, a can of 'Windex', a can of '409', and a can of 'Clorox'. There are also brushes, a blue sponge, and a blue plastic container. The background wall is white tiled with a blue border.

A photograph of a bathroom interior. A white bathtub is the central feature, with a white shower curtain hanging over it. A brown towel is draped over the showerhead. A white toilet is visible in the foreground on the right. A window is visible above the bathtub, and a red curtain is partially visible on the left.
