Frank,

We can have this operational by Friday. First, you will need to purchase the Fubo TV plan, create the login credentials, then email it to me preferably via text. I'll be off working today, but he will install the Fubo TV app on each TV and use the credentials you provided. On Sunday, someone will need to make sure it's streaming the correct channel, because a tenant might change the channel or switch to another app.

Thanks,
Adonis
