Description of Incident
At 11pm on Sunday night. I was at home when I heard fire trucks pull in to Meadowbrook. I went out and followed them to building 637. The resident lit a candle and threw the match in The trash can that was in his bedroom. The fire department was out. They removed the trash can outside of the building and then put the fire out. There was no water damage in the unit. Fire was isolated in the trash can and burnt the residents dresser. The was no damage to the unit other then the carpet under the trash can was burnt.
