Description of Incident
This was reported to me on Tuesday 1/18/22, that on Monday 1/17/22 a male resident from the East building E803 alleged tried to grab a little girl out of a group of children playing outside. The kids ran to the West building and reported it to the concierge on duty the child's parent. The mother of the little girl called the police. Police came out but E803 Jacob Rapp had locked himself in his apartment and wouldn't come out. The police said that they will have to wait to 302 him! The mother also reported that another parent has been watching this guy because his daughter told him that he follows me all the time. On Thursday 1/20/22 around 8:45 am the police was here again tring to get Mr. Rapp out of the apartment. Maintenance got the key however they didn't get to arrest him.
