Description of Incident
Natalie Dixon was covering the front office when a young man came in and asked for Natalie to do a wellness check on the resident in W526. Natalie told the person that she couldn't provide any information on who lives in W526 for privacy. The person said he knows that his sister and nieces live in the apartment. He then asked Natalie for the key to gain entry so he could check himself. Natalie told the man that the police would need to be called to perform a wellness check, but the man refused and said it would make matters worse. Mike Gray and Kenny Poteat then came in to the Management Office as the man began cursing at Natalie. The man then pulled down his mask and said if we don't let him into the apartment, he would go up to the apartment and kick the door in. Natalie then called 911 and gave details of the incident. The police came and checked on the resident in W526- Onasha Christie, who was fine and said she just didn't want to be bothered by her family today.
