Description of Incident
While helping resident received her package for the Hub locker in the Cafe on the first floor Lobby. Teresa Hopson inform me afraid she is since we do not have security in the building anymore. How people of the street be getting in to the building, following the residents that is coming in. Also, that she doesn't even want to leave out her APT pass the time the front desk leave because of this. Furthermore, Teresa Hopson told me people getting into our building is coming in from the backdoor on the first floor and the backdoor on the ground floor. Teresa Hopson said after leaving here 12 years she never in her life felt of afraid.
