Description of Incident
On Saturday, June 4th upon walking into the office at 10:00A , I noticed a Ford vehicle car window was broken on the driver side and there was glass on the ground. I recognized the car belonged to Mr. and Mrs. Tatum in apartment A416. I called and informed them of the broken glass. After reviewing his car, he called the police to make a report. The only thing removed from the vehicle was the handicap plaque. He reminded me this was the second time his car window was broken and once someone broke his car tail light. I asked did he have any enemies. He said no. He waited on the police, who arrived several hours later. Amanda Sparks-A113 came into the office to let me know someone broken into her car. Nothing was removed and no locks or glasses broken. I asked her to call and make a police report as well.
