Description of Incident
This afternoon four police officers came into the building. I ask them where they were going, they said that they received a call from Mr. Brockington who resides in apartment 1216, regarding his neighbor, Ms. Thompson, Who lives in apt. 1215. Mr. Brockington has been leaving notes on her door and scratching on the door with some type of object. Ms. Thompson has come down to the management office numerous of times complaining about Mr. Brockington's behavior. Today's episode, according to Ms. Thompson, started with Mr. Brockington banging on her door, she said that when she open the door, he sprayed something in her face, that she thought at the time was mace. However, when I call for Shawn to come up to open Mr. Brockington's door so the police to speak with him, they said that there was a can of raid on his counter next to the door, which left a strong Oder in the hall as we exited the elevator. Ms. Thompson told the police officers that she would like to press charges for harassment. The office instructed Ms. Thompson, to file a report at 1425 Arch street, and she was given a DC number 22-35-035329 by the police office. In addition, I have reached out to Mr. Brockington's case manager, however, she wasn't available, I left her a detail message asking her to get back to me at her earliest convenience. Friday June 24-Mr. Brockington's case manager called the office. Both the manager and I spoke to her. We relayed the incident just as it is written in this report. She was very concerned about MR. Brockington's actions. She said she was new and needed to review the files. We said we believed the resident was going to file a police report.
Corrective action taken at the time of the incident
The manager contacted the attorneys to see if we could begin eviction proceedings against Mr. Brockington. The attorneys told us on 6/27 to forward all information to them and they would proceed. .
