Description of Incident
On 7/7 at 6:40 pm, resident parked her black Hyundai Elantra on the lot. At 2:46 am resident was notified by her mother that the police had found the car on Cresentville Road. This is when resident learned that the car was stolen. Police report was filed DC#2335044008 and retrieved her car. Passenger side back window was broken. After reviewing the cameras, I was able to see that at 1:13 am a white Hyundai Elantra pulled onto the lot from the 69th Street entrance and backed into a spot by the C bldg. It was later learned that car was a stolen vehicle that the police came and retrieved. The car was not backed in all the way and was left running. A male is seen exiting the vehicle and then walking across the lot and walks between residents car and a parked SUV. The male left in the residents vehicle.
