Description of Incident
On July 21, 2021, around 9am the leasing office received a call from Paul Matias, who resides in A115 and informed Dawn he heard a loud bang around midnight in his bathroom. When he went into the bathroom, he noticed a hole behind his bathroom door, and he could see right into his neighbor's apartment. After Dawn informed me, I asked her if he could tell us which wall since he has a neighbor on each side of his apartment. He called the office back around 11am after Dawn left a message on his voicemail and explained the side where A113 is located. Maintenance (David Williams) was sent to his apartment to review the hole. David knocked on A113 door but to no avail. He came back to the office with a bullet in his hand. I opened a glad lock bag and he put it inside. Paul gave it to him after finding it on his bathroom floor. I asked Dawn to call the police and ask them to visit before entering A113, Christopher Johnson apartment. An officer arrived on site a little before noon. He was given the bullet and confirmed that it was a bullet. He reported to his district, we went down to apartment A115 to get Paul story. Paul stated he did not know it was a gunshot nor did he know that was a bullet and he did not think to call the police when he heard the noise. The office updated his district and explained the situation to his supervisor. We went into the apartment of A113 to make sure there was no one was deceased in the unit. When we entered, there were two guns inside the apartment, a hole in the mirror door located on the bathroom door and a hole in the ceramic tile of the bathroom wall. Photos were taken by me on my phone. No one was home, living or deceased. We left the apartment and went to the lobby so the officer could update his supervisor. I texted Lori and informed her of the situation. When time was given, I emailed Marly Wood at Paul Cohen's office asking for a letter for an immediate termination, a copy of his rental suit, ledger, and our property license. Lori and I confirmed we was filing against Christopher Johnson for possession of the apartment not money. The officer said we would wait for the detectives to arrive to see what the next step would be. Around 1pm, a Sargent and two detectives came out and looked around the unit. They all interviewed Paul Matias in A115. They then went into Christopher Johnson's apartment, A113. Looked around for open shell casings. Informed me they believed he was aiming the gun at the mirror (maybe taking a pic) and the gun went off by accident. One shell casing was found on the ground which made the officers believe it was a handgun that was shot. The detectives informed me "they would be returning to seize the guns when they have a search warrant, which was in process. They said they were not sure if he would face criminal charges, but this was considered a crime scene. The resident, Christopher Johnson may be licensed to carry because he is a private security officer. He does not need to be licensed to have guns in his premises but when that gun went off, it should have been reported and it was not." They informed me no one was allowed in the apartment until they returned, and the officer would stay and keep eyes on the unit. Jermaine Newell locked the windows since one window was wide open along with the screen. Around 2:30p, David who was leaving the C building saw Christopher Johnson car pull up to the A building. He got out the vehicle and looked at his apartment windows and turned around and left. The detectives arrived back on site around 4:00pm. Removed guns, bullet, shell casing and asked for a copy of Christopher Johnson lease. They informed me that when or if he contacted the office about his guns, to go to the 35th district. A copy of his warrant was left on the counter. Apartment was locked up and the police and detectives left. Around 5pm Christopher Johnson was seen going into the A building to his apartment. He came back out to his car and was on the phone with the blue paper which was the warrant to search his home. He went back inside his home for a half hour, and then left the premises. DC# 21-35-051159 was given to me on a piece of paper.
