Description of Incident
Resident and wife went for a walk between 6:30 PM and 7:30 PM. They said that they locked apt and window. Apt is on first floor. They think someone opened the window from outside and stole iPad that was sitting near window inside. Mr. Parisian stated that they have plants on the window sill but they weren't disturbed. No sign of forced entry and nothing else missing. Paul Oneto ran a key audit and only resident keys had been used. I asked the resident if it was possible that the iPad had been misplaced. He said it belonged to his daughter and they searched the entire apartment. They did not call the Police but wanted to make us aware.
