Description of Incident
Collen Plummer, resident of K200, came to the door this morning and asked if Stephen got his email. I said yes, I believe he responded to you. Collen then said: "The people above me are letting their little kids stomp around on purpose, just to piss me off." He was jumping up and down to demonstrate. I started to tell him I can reach to them about the noise but before I could say anything he said, "You can't do nothing about that? Well, I'm not afraid to blow him away" (and then I think he said if I have to). Then he walked away before I could speak to him further. I contacted L. Kolinchak who instructed me to call the police. I contacted NPD, first speaking to Dispatch Officer #833, then to Officer Nolan who responded they would come to the property to speak to the resident and possibly to me.
