Description of Incident
On December 9th around 3:00pm, David Brown who resides in apartment B310 called the office and spoke with Latiffa Washington (our leasing temp) on the phone. He stated his apartment was broken into and he wanted to know what he needed to do. She informed him that he needed to contact the police. She asked was the door broken and he said Yes. Maintenance was informed and asked to go to the apartment to secure the door. Jermaine went to the apartment and secured the apartment door. The police were on scene speaking with he resident. Mr. Brown reported he had $2800 in money missing, sneakers and jewelry. Around 5:00pm on the same day, Harrison Buttrick from apartment A315 came to the office and said that his apartment was broken into. Latiffa and Dawn informed him he needed to call the police. Maintenance on call was notified. Jermaine Newell went to the apartment and secured the apartment door. Resident stated that he would not be staying in his apartment tonight. Nothing was stolen from his apartment. We are unsure if this resident contacted the police.
