Description of Incident
At 9am, Maintenance technician Juwan went to his locker in building 2 shop. The previous day, Formica countertops delivered and placed in front of the lockers. When Juwan shifted the countertops to access his locker, the counter top tipped and fell on the top of his foot. He attempted to work through the pain and completed a ticket that was assigned to him. At 950am, he informed the maintenance coordinator, Jason, that the pain was not subsiding and is electing to go to the emergency room. HR was notified on 12/18/23 of the incident, for workers compensation purposes.
