There comes a time in your life, when you walk away from all the drama and the people who create it.

You surround yourself with people who make you laugh.
Forget the bad, and focus on the good. Love the people who treat you right, pray for the ones who don't. Life is too short to be anything but happy.

Falling down is a part of life.
Getting back up is living.

A black and white photograph of a person walking away on a mountain trail towards a large snow-capped peak. The person is a small figure in the lower center of the frame, walking along a light-colored path that leads into the distance. The surrounding landscape is rugged and mountainous, with dark, rocky slopes in the foreground and middle ground. In the background, a massive, jagged mountain peak is covered in snow and partially shrouded in mist or low clouds. The sky is a uniform, light gray, suggesting an overcast day. The overall mood is one of solitude and the vastness of nature.

Strong people will automatically stop trying if they feel unwanted. They won't fix it or beg. They will just walk away.

The background of the image is a photograph of a city skyline at dusk or dawn. The sky is a mix of light blue and orange, with some clouds. The city below is filled with numerous skyscrapers and buildings, many of which have their lights on, creating a bokeh effect of light points. The overall tone is contemplative and serene.

"A mistake
is something that you did
thinking it was right
but it was wrong.

—A sin
is something that you know
is wrong."
