Strong people will automatically stop trying if they feel unwanted. They won't fix it or beg. They will just walk away.

There comes a time in your life, when you walk away from all the drama and the people who create it.

You surround yourself with people who make you laugh.
Forget the bad, and focus on the good. Love the people who treat you right, pray for the ones who don't. Life is too short to be anything but happy.

Falling down is a part of life.
Getting back up is living.

A photograph of a city skyline at dusk or dawn, with many skyscrapers and lights visible. The sky is a mix of blue and orange. Overlaid on the top half of the image is a quote in black and white text.

"A mistake
is something that you did
thinking it was right
but it was wrong.

A sin
is something that you know
is wrong."
