RE: Excessive Noise

We have received a report from a resident of noise disturbances coming from your apartment. Specifically the noise is of your dog crying throughout the day. I heard that keeping your TV on or having background noise can help keep animals calm while their owners are away. Are you able to keep your TV or radio on to help calm your dog while you're out of the apartment?

Also, please provide the leasing office team information of your new emotional support animal.

Behaving in a loud manner or disturbing your neighbors is a direct violation of your Lease Contract, per "Prohibited Conduct." In addition to your being responsible for following all Lease rules, it is important to remember that you are also responsible for the action of other occupants of your unit, including children, and guests.

If you have any questions, feel free to contact the Management Office at 610-272-8542.

Yours,

Stephen Cicala
